(By Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, May 8. So great has grown public interest in golf and the municipal links in Griffith park, that the Los Angeles city council is considering the establishment of a bus line to that recreation ground from the nearest electric car line.

BLONDE ESKIMOS NOT TO BE EXPATRIATED

(Correspondence Associated Press) PORT YUKON, Alaska, April 1.—Blond Eskimos discovered by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer, in the far northern arctic, are to be let alone in their uncivilized aboriginal state according to Leo Wittenberg, a trader and whaler who stopped on his way from the Arctic ocean to the states.
 The Canadian government, Mr. Wittenberg said, has forbidden all white people from the outside world to trade with or even visit in the arctic of Victoria land where the strange white race lives. Even missionaries cannot go into the country, he asserted.
 Canada's orders are being enforced by the constables of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police from the police station at Heppel Island, an arctic post at the mouth of the Mackenzie river.
 Wittenberg said he went among the "blond Eskimos" a year after Stefansson's discovery and established a post where he engaged in trading, whaling and trapping. He remained there, he asserted, until Canadian authorities requested him to leave.
 Wittenberg's description of the strange race coincides with that given by Stefansson. They have blue eyes, light hair and European features in general, he said. Authorities believe the tribe descended from early Greenlanders.
 Reports brought out of the north about a year ago by W. J. Bower, one of Stefansson's companions, said the "Blond Eskimos" used bows and arrows, dressed in skins, used flints for making fires and knew absolutely nothing of the great outside world lying far to the south.

TWO CONTENDERS RENEW FIGHT

(By Associated Press) SEATTLE, May 8.—Puget Sound's old discussion as to whether "The Mountain" should be called Mount Rainier or Mount Tacoma has been reopened by newspaper suggestions that both sides to the argument drop their claims and compromise upon Mount Roosevelt.
 Tacoma long has held that the big peak's name is Mount Tacoma, Seattle, on the other hand, has pointed to the government maps bearing the name of Rainier.
 A Portland newspaper, in what it termed "a helpful and charitable spirit" recently suggested that the name be changed to Mount Roosevelt. One Seattle paper seconded the idea and another suggested that the scheme carried father by naming Puget Sound, Oyster Bay and "The Mountain" Sagamore Hill.
 Tacoma speaking editorially, refuses to accept any of the suggestions stating that Theodore Roosevelt himself supported Tacoma's claim to the name.
 "By the way, how do you go about it to change the name of a mountain" one editorial asked. The question has not been answered.

UTAH PAYMASTER JAILED FOR THEFT

A night of revelry at Vernon, following several months of gaiety at cafes and high-class hotels of several Coast cities, was brought to a close last week for Louis F. Wetzel, former paymaster for the Utah Copper Company of Martin, Fla., when he was arrested and tossed in the county jail that city. His arrest ends a nationwide search begun last January by Sheriff John S. Corless of Salt Lake City, who sought him for the theft of $30,000 from the company for which he worked.
 According to information received yesterday, $15,000 of the amount alleged to have been stolen was made up of small cashier's checks given by employees of the company to pay for Liberty Bonds.
 Wetzel's arrest, which came near the closing hour of a large Vernon cafe, was made while he was in the company of Dagmar Schade and Marian Anderson, young widow of Salt Lake City. They were staying at the Angeles Hotel, the sheriff was told.
 The search for Wetzel had been conducted in many cities throughout the country and a description of him had been sent broadcast. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Bright, Modoc and Cooper and Patrolman Pat Harmon of Vernon on the way to the county jail, the officers say he confessed, but declared that he had divided the stolen money with men named Kumrow and Welch, employees of the mining company. When the officers searched him and found $500 in cash and $700 in cashier's checks on him he said he was ready to go back to Utah, the officers say, but later he changed his mind, employed John L. Richardson as his attorney, and said he would fight extradition. One check found on him was for $2300, payable to the mining company.
 Wetzel was also known as Le. West and while in Southern California, has lived at the Huntington hotel, he said. Since January, when the theft was discovered, he has visited several Coast cities and spent considerable time in San Francisco, staying at the best hotels and spending his money lavishly, according to Sheriff Clune.
 "It was just the opportunity that induced me to take the money," said Wetzel yesterday in the county jail. "I was already short on my accounts about $4,000. When I went home one night with several thousand dollars in cash and cashier's checks I tried to figure out if I could make good, but couldn't and there was all this money in front of me, if I was taking a chance, and I took it. Now I am sorry."
 Wetzel said he left his wife and home and went to San Francisco, then to Santa Barbara and then to Los Angeles. He met Miss Schade and Miss Anderson Wednesday at Vernon and having known them three years before, asked them out to Venice and then to Vernon.
 According to Attorney Charles W. Lyon, who represents the Utah Copper company, the actual sum Wetzel stole will have to account for is about $4,000.
 Wetzel says his wife is in Los Angeles but that he feared to go to her. She is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jensen of Salt Lake City, who are visiting here.
